Re: Letter of Official invitation

We are pleased to extend an official invitation to Dr. Pengfei Song to attend the IMCS 2023–International Meeting on Chemical Sensors held by the Jilin University, China from August 4th–8th 2023 and taking place at the Jilin University.

The scientific contribution entitled “A Bio-inspired Lateral Flow Assay for Improving the Sensitivity of Low Volume Samples”, has been accepted as Oral presentation.

The International Meeting on Chemical Sensors (IMCS)–held every two years–is the world’s largest interdisciplinary forum for all aspects of chemical sensors and has developed into the most prestigious conference in this scientific area. The global conference aims to provide an international platform for scholars, scientists, engineers, and students to present and discuss the latest research, bring novel insights and inspire new ideas on functional materials and sensors technologies.

All conference sessions will be held in the Innovate building and Shaw house of the Jilin University. Jilin University which is a national key comprehensive university under the direct administration of Ministry of Education in China. Located in Changchun, Jilin Province, the university was founded in 1946. Changchun, located northeast of Beijing, is the capital of Jilin province. It is a Chinese version of a combination of Detroit and Hollywood. It has China's oldest motor vehicle plant and its biggest film studio. Changchun has witnessed rapid development since the founding of the People's Republic in 1949, and has become a major industrial and cultural city in China. So there will be the possibility to explore the beauties of the Changchun city in addition to enjoying world-class science.

The Organizing Committee regrets that it cannot provide travel or conference grants for the Congress and that you are personally responsible for all aspects of your booking, including payment. Please note that the registration fee, besides the attendance of the scientific sessions will cover participation to the social events, coffee breaks and lunch during the conference but does not include travel and accommodation. We are looking forward to seeing you in Jilin University, Changchun, China.
